TOEY FOOK SING'S BRIDE

A Japanese Merchant Takes Unto Himself a Caucasian Wife.

Frank E. Corbett's Body to Bo Cremated-Course of True Love Smoothed for Miss Butler.

Alexandria, May 19.-Toey Fook Sing, a Japanese merchant, of Boston, and Miss Mary Young, of Baltimore, were married at the parsonage of Trinity M. E. Church In this city yesterday evening, by the Rev. L. I. McDougle, paster of Trinity Church. The couple came to this city yesterday afternoon and applied for a license-Under a recent act of the legislature li-censes can be issued to non-residents, provided they are of legal age. When ques tioned by the clerk as to who was to perform the ceremony, Bev. J. F. Aldridge, a colored minister from Washington, stated that he had accompanied the couple to this city for that purpose. He was advised by the clerk that this would be impossible, unless he was duly authorized by the courts of Virginia to perform the rites of matrimony. He, therefore, concluded to aid the couple by acting as a witness. The party was directed to the residence of Rev. Mr. McDeugle, who, as above stated, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sing. sturned to Washington immediately after the marriage.

The body of the late Frank E. Corbett was removed from the undertaking estabhistorist Mr. Wheatley to Masonic Temple today. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock with Me cerematics.

Reception at the White House in Honor of Postal Delegates.

A DISTINGUISHED COMPANY

Statesmen and Diplomats With Their Wives and Daughters Assemble to Pay Their Respects to the Representatives of the Governments of the World.

The recention in honor of the Universe Postal Congress at the White House last night was a brilliant success. The dele gates of the congress were there in full attendance and were the recipients of many honors from the Cabinet officers, diplomatic corps and Senators, who had assembled to extend them a cordial welcome to the Capital of the nation.

The balls and corridors leading to the reception rooms were filled with palms and tropical plants, and the East room presented a beautiful appearance with its masses of rare plants and tall palms, intermingled with Easter lilies.

In the line Room the decorations were of brilliant scarlet flowers with palms, ferns and trailing vines.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock Col. Bingman receiving party into the Blue Room. Mrs. McKinley sat to receive, while the ladies of her Cabinet stood in line with her. The members of the diplomatic corps were the first to be presented, and as they passed in the gorgeous attire denoting their of-ficial ranks, to the stirring notes of Berliaz's "Benvento Ceeline," the scene was one of superb brilliancy.

The delegates to the Postal Congress were received next in order, after which they were the lions of the evening. This is the first social event that has been tendered in their honor, and was manifestly greatly enjoyed by them.

Mrs. McKinley never appeared more vinning in manner and more lovely in appearance than last night. She was superbly gowned in silver white brocade satin, elaborately trimmed with rose point. She wore diamond ornaments and a white nigrette was fastened in the soft curls with a diamond buckle. Mrs. Hobart, who stood next in line, wore a gown of heavy ivory satin with magnificent diamonds Mrs. Sherman was gowned in black moire antique with handsome diamonds. Mrs. Gage looked very handsome in pearl colored white brocade satin, with rich lace and superb

Mrs. Alger was exquisitely gowned in white satin, with point de Alencon and jeweled trimmings. She wore a diamond necklace and a diamond star in her hair. Mrs. Gary was gowned in pearl-gray satin with a vest of pink crepellsse and trimmings of rose point. She wore an antique necklace of ruties and diamonds.

Miss Long looked very sweet and gracious in a gown of pink satin, with trimmings of rich lace, and were pearls.

The reception was just large ca-sugh to point of numbers to make it thoroughly delightful, and there was no heater crowd-

At the close of the discussion the recon-condition of the committee was so amended as to provide for the raising of $6,000 instead of $5,000, the amount to be apportioned by the wisdpnary committee among the several parishes and congregations of the diece

The convention then adjourned until 10 clock this morning.

FISHED OUT OF THE RIVER. Colored Boy Saved by Policeman Rinck's Prompt Action.

Policeman Rinck, of the Fourth precinct, distinguished himself yesterday evening by saving the life of Charles Henry Dehome is at No. 54 Jackson alley northwest. The boy went on a fishing expedition yesterday afternoon, and after scating him self comfortably on a big flat stone on the he cast in his line and waited patiently for

Finally he fell asleep and tolled off his boatman, heard his cries for help and came to his rescue, pulling him out with a boat hook. Everybody thought he wasdead, but just at this time the patrol wagon from No. 4 station arrived with Policeman Binck. While the others stood around deening the lad's case hopeless, the officer grasped the boy in his arms and began rolling aim

When signs of life began to appear the lad was placed in the wagon and the driver instructed to basten with all nossible speed to the Emergency Hospital On the way to the hospital Policeman Rinck continued to work upon the boy by moving his arms and legs. Dr. Bahr said it was the only thing that saved the boy's life. For more than an hour the hospital staff worked upon him before he revived consciousness and was able to give his name and address. He was sent to a ward and reported last night as being in a fair way to recover.

Body Not Yet Found.

There is a bottle at the Twelfth street pelice station containing a note, which was picked up on the beach in the Monument grounds this morning by Watch-man Schmidt. The note is dated "Cape Charles, Va., May 12," and signed "John J. Bryan." It reads:

"If my body is found bring it to 1431 Halstead street, Chicago." The police regard the matter as a fake, and no action will be taken.
